

THE MUSKOGON CHAMBER CHOIR

Beth Barber	Richard Borgeson
Clohe Bradford	James Damm
Kathleen Bush	Jon DeHorn
Elizabeth Cooper	William Hagen
Marian DeGran	Eric Johnson
Ellen Gustafson	Herbert Lans
Bernice Johnson	Dan Lundwall
Christine Kennedy	John Oliphant
Alyda Mae Koster	Karl Selin
Jacquelyne Martin	Richard Versalle
Helen Paxton	John Wheeler

The Muskegon Chamber Choir was formed in the fall of 1963. Presently the choir is composed of twenty-two singers representing sixteen area churches of eight denominations. The singers come from all walks of life and from widely varied backgrounds, but all share one love: that of singing great sacred music.

This evening's offering will go toward the continuing support of the choir and its activities.

SECOND ANNUAL SPRING CONCERT

by the

MUSKEGON CHAMBER CHOIR
David A. Wikman - Director
Karen Wilson - Accompanist
Mary Milkamp - Guest Organist

PROGRAM

I

PSALM 100 David H. Williams
SURELY HE HATH BORN OUR GRIEFS Karl Heinrich Graun
TWO MOTETS Anton Bruckner
Offertorium
Ecce Sacerdos
SALVATION IS CREATED Paul Tschesnokoff
ALLELUIA, GLORIOUS IS THY NAME Robert Olson
LET ALL THE NATIONS PRAISE THE LORD
Vlookmar Leisring
BEAUTIFUL SAVIOR F. Melius Christiansen

The Chamber Choir

II

PRELUDE, FUGUE AND CHACONNE Dietrich Buxtehude
ALLEGRO from Sonata No. IV Felix Mendelssohn
CHORALE PRELUDE: O FILII ET FILIAE Healey Willan

Miss Mary Milkamp

OFFERING

. III

JESU, PRICELESS TREASURE J.S. Bach
Motet for five-part choir

Choral: Jesu, Priceless Treasure

Chorus: So there is now no condemnation

Choral: In Thine are I rest me

Trio: Thus then, the law of the Spirit

Chorus: Death, I do not fear thee

Chorus: Ye are not of the flesh

Choral: Hence with earthly treasure

Quartet: Fare thee well that erreth

Chorus: If by His Spirit

Choral: Hence all fears and sadness

Soloists

Helen Paxton - Soprano I
Bernice Johnson - Soprano II
Ellen Gustafson - Alto

The Chamber Choir

